

Declaration of Loss and Claim for Refund

The undersigned declare(s) UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY, under the laws of the State of Ohio that:

The undersigned is/are the _____ purchaser(s) _____ payee(s) of an Official Check by Century Federal Credit Union ("Credit Union"), dated _____/_____/_____ check number _____, in the amount of $_____ payable to the order of _____ . In order for this Declaration of Loss and Claim to be valid, the undersigned must describe the instrument involved with reasonable certainty.

The undersigned request that all payment on the Official check described in this document, aside from this Claim, be stopped, Specifically, if in the future someone presents the check for payment, Century Federal Credit Union, subject to the conditions of this document, is not to pay the check.

The undersigned lost possession of the check described above. The undersigned did not lose possession of the check as a result of a lawful seizure or transferring the check to someone else. The undersigned reasonably cannot obtain possession of the check because the check was destroyed, its whereabouts cannot be determined, or it is in the wrongful possession of an unknown person or a person that cannot be found or is not amenable to service of process. The undersigned request Credit Union to pay the undersigned the amount of the check when this---Claim becomes enforceable without requiring the delivery of the original check to Credit Union.

This Claim will not become enforceable until the later of: (i) the date Credit Union receives the written Claim; or (ii) if the check is a cashier's check or teller's check, the 19th day following the date of the check, or, if the check is a certified check, the ninetieth day following the date of the acceptance. Until then, the Claim has no legal effect, and the check may be honored if presented for payment. Payment to a person entitled to enforce the check discharges all liability of Century Federal Credit Union with respect to the check. If the Claim becomes enforceable before the check is presented for payment, Century Federal Credit Union is not obligated to pay the check. When the Claim becomes enforceable, Century Federal Credit Union becomes obligated to pay the amount of the check to the claimant if payment of the check has not been made to a person entitled to enforce the check. Subject to division (A)(1) of Section 1304.28 of the Ohio Revised Code, payment to the claimant discharges all liability of Century Federal Credit Union with respect to the check.

In any case, this Claim is effective only if received at a time and in a manner affording Century Federal Credit Union a reasonable time to act on it before the check is paid.

The undersigned's claim may not be effective if the undersigned fails to provide Century Federal Credit Union with complete and accurate information. Credit Union may also refuse to honor the Claim if the undersigned fails to show Credit Union reasonable identification upon request.

If Century Federal Credit Union honors the claim and reissues the check to the undersigned and the check is later presented to Century Federal Credit Union for payment by a person having rights of a holder in due course, the undersigned are obliged to do whichever of the following is applicable: (i) If the check is paid, refund the payment to Century Federal Credit Union, or (ii) If the check is dishonored, pay the amount of the check to the person having rights of a holder in due.

If there is more than one undersigned, their liability hereunder and the representations and warranties herein shall be joint and several.

The undersigned certify that the information contained in this Declaration of Loss and Claim, to the best of their knowledge, is true. This certificate is made under penalty of perjury.

This Declaration executed this _____ day of _____, 20 _____

Signature of Purchaser/Payee

Printed Name

Address

Telephone #

Signature of Notary Public

My commission expires _____/_____/_____

3/11/2013