Each time you use Online Banking, your use constitutes your continuing agreement to use Online Banking according to this Agreement and to be legally bound by all its terms, as these terms are now or as they may change in the future from time to time. You agree:

Century Federal Credit Union reserves the right to terminate the entire Online Banking program or access to any account at any time and without prior notice. CFCU also reserves the right to terminate Online Banking access privileges for all accounts applicable to a member number if any account under that member number becomes delinquent, is declared to be in default, becomes subject to litigation or other court proceedings, is restructured, is accessed in violation of applicable law or this Agreement, or if Century Federal Credit Union believes the account is being used for fraudulent and/or illegal activity, including illegal internet gambling. If you use your account to engage in any such illegal activities, you will nevertheless be liable for those activities. Further, you agree to reimburse CFCU for any losses it incurs as a result of your actions. CFCU will make a reasonable attempt to notify you if your Online Banking access is terminated for any reason.

This Agreement describes your rights and obligations as a user of the e-Statement Service ("Service"). It also describes the rights and obligations of Century Federal Credit Union. Please read this Agreement carefully. By pressing the "I Accept" button on CFCU's Online Banking system, you elect and authorize us, at our discretion, to electronically deliver your account statement(s), which we are required to provide to you under applicable Federal and State statutes and their implementing regulations.

When you click the "I Accept" button, you confirm that you have read these terms and conditions, that you understand them and that you are in compliance with them. YOU WILL NO LONGER RECEIVE A PAPER STATEMENT IN THE MAIL.

Other Federal and State statutes may be enacted or amended in the future to provide for electronic delivery of account statements. Your acceptance below also authorizes us, at our discretion, to provide electronic delivery of such statements pursuant to these statutes after they become effective. If there is more than one owner that is a party to the account, notice to any one account owner will be effective for all.

You further agree to comply with the supplemental terms and conditions set forth in this agreement, which are set forth below.

Definitions

The following definitions apply in this Agreement. "E-Statement" is the Internet-based service in which Century Federal Credit Union delivers periodic encrypted account statements to a secure web site. "E-mail" messages are sent to the e-mail address you specify as a convenience when statements are posted for your retrieval. "Password" is the code you create when enrolling for use in opening and decrypting your electronic statement. "We" "us", "Century Federal Credit Union", or "CFCU" refers to Century Federal Credit Union, which offers the Service, and which holds the accounts for which statements are being provided through the Service.

Access to Services

You will gain access to your e-Statement through the use of your Internet-enabled device, your Internet Service Provider, your electronic mail Provider, and your Password.

Security Measures

We will use commercially reasonable measures, consistent with industry standards, to maintain a reasonable level of security over the information contained in the electronically delivered account statement(s). Our security consists of SSL encryption of the data contained in the electronic statement to protect it while in transit over the Internet.

You understand that these industry standards are dynamic and constantly developing. By accepting this agreement, you acknowledge and understand that there are risks to electronic delivery of account statement(s), including, but not limited to, delay or failure of delivery due to technical difficulties, weather conditions, matters beyond our reasonable control, or interruption and/or alteration of such account statement(s) by third parties in spite of CFCU's commercially reasonable security measures.

By accepting this agreement, you represent that you have considered our security measures, and find that our security measures are commercially reasonable. In reaching this conclusion, you have considered the historical and potential future content of your statement(s), the risks associated with electronic delivery of account statement(s), and our security procedures. If you conclude that our security procedures cease to be commercially reasonable in the future, you must terminate this agreement immediately in accordance with the procedure outlined below.

Required Computer Specifications

To receive and access electronic statements, your computer will need an internet web browser application such as Chrome, Firefox, Internet Explorer or Safari. Having a program that can read and store Adobe PDF documents, such as Adobe Reader (which can be obtained for free from the Adobe websites), is also recommended. More information can be obtained at <http://www.cenfedcu.org/member-resources/additionalresources/online-and-mobile-banking-system-help>.

We will send you notification of online availability to view your periodic account statement(s) by signing into Online Banking. Notification will be sent to you via e-mail to the last known e-mail address provided by you. It is your responsibility to provide us with current, accurate, and complete contact information. You may update your email address and other contact information online within our online banking system, or you may call us toll-free at 1-800-615-2328.

Use of your Security Password

You agree not to allow anyone to gain access to the Service or to let anyone know your Password used with the Service. You further agree that CFCU has no control as to the persons who have access to your personal computer and your Password. CFCU will not be liable for any unauthorized access to your personal computer using your Password. You agree that it is your responsibility to initiate and maintain the highest level of password security procedures to prevent any unauthorized access to your personal computer or unauthorized use of your Password.

Century Federal Credit Union
Attention: Member Services Department
4600 Rockside Road
Independence, Ohio 44131

Any applicable time periods within which you must notify us of any errors on your account statement(s) shall begin on the day it is sent to you by e-mail, regardless of when you receive and/or open the e-Statement. You agree that the time you have to examine your statement and report to us will depend on the circumstances, but will not, in any circumstance, exceed a total of 30 days from when the statement is first sent or made available to you.

You further agree that if you fail to report any unauthorized signatures, alterations, forgeries, or any other errors in your account within 60 days of when we first send or make the statement available, you cannot assert a claim against us on any items in that statement, and as between you and us the loss will be entirely yours. This 60-day limitation is without regard to whether we used ordinary care. The limitation in this paragraph is in addition to that contained in the first paragraph of this section.

Limit of Century Federal Credit Union and Other Provider's Responsibility

Century Federal Credit Union agrees to make reasonable efforts to ensure full performance of the e-Statement Service. We shall have no liability for failure to perform any e-Statement Service, or for any disruption or delay in performing e-Statement Service, in the event such failure, disruption, or delay is due to circumstances beyond our reasonable control, including, but not limited to, failure or disruption of electrical power, computer equipment, telecommunication systems, your Internet Service Provider, or weather conditions. We shall have no liability for any consequential, special, punitive damages or indirect loss under any circumstances. Century Federal Credit Union is not responsible for any computer virus or related problems, which may be attributable to the Service.

You are responsible for obtaining, installing, maintaining, and operating all computer hardware and software necessary for receiving e-Statements. Century Federal Credit Union will not be responsible for any errors or failures from the malfunction or failure of your hardware or software.

We make no warranties of any kind with respect to the software program used to access your electronic statement, and we do not warrant that the software program or the e-Statement Service will meet your specific requirements. We make no warranties of any kind, whether expressed or implied, with respect to the use and adequacy of the software program or the e-Statement Service we provide under this agreement. We disclaim any and all implied warranties, including, but not limited to, the implied warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose.

Under no circumstances will Century Federal Credit Union be liable in contract, tort, or otherwise for any special, incidental, or consequential damages, whether or not foreseeable. By consenting to use the Services, you agree to waive any and all rights to any of the aforesaid, and you acknowledge that the limit of your remedy is as otherwise expressly set forth herein.

Other agreements

In addition to this Agreement, you and Century Federal Credit Union agree to be bound by and comply with the requirements of the agreements applicable to each of the accounts for which you elect to receive electronic statements. Your use of the e-Statement Service is your acknowledgment that you have received these agreements and intend to be bound by them. You should review other disclosures received by you when you open your accounts at Century Federal Credit Union.

Modifications to this Agreement

Century Federal Credit Union may modify the terms and conditions applicable to the Service from time to time upon mailing or delivering a notice of the modifications to you at the address shown on our account records, and the revised terms and conditions shall be effective at the earliest date allowed by applicable law. We may send any notice to you via electronic mail and you will have been deemed to receive it three (3) days after it is sent. We reserve the right to terminate this Agreement and your use of the Services in whole or in part at any time without prior notice.

Or you may call us toll-free at 1-800-615-2328 between 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. (Eastern Standard Time), and ask for the Member Service Center Department. Cancelling your e-Statement Service does not withdraw your consent to receive electronic notices, agreements, disclosures, documents and communications, if you have given prior consent to receive them through electronic means.

Governing Law

This Agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Ohio and applicable Federal law.

Fee Schedule

Century Federal Credit Union offers the benefits and convenience of the e-Statement Service to you free of charge.

Bill Pay Disclosure Statement and Agreement

This agreement states the terms and conditions that apply when you use our bill pay service through online, software, or other methods that we may provide. These terms and conditions are in addition to those that apply to any accounts you have with us or any other services you obtain from us. You must follow all of our instructions and procedures applicable to the services covered by this agreement.

Explanation of Certain Terms

- "We", "us" and "our" means Century Federal Credit Union, Cleveland, Ohio.
- "You" and "your" mean an individual person or business entity that we permit to use our bill pay service subject to the terms of this agreement.
- "Company representative" means, if you are a business entity, anyone we reasonably believe, in accordance with our security procedures, to be authorized to act on your behalf in connection with our bill pay service.
- "Bill pay" means our service that allows you to make payments and obtain information in accordance with this agreement.
- "Online" means through the Internet by use of a personal computer or other screen-based electronic device.
- "Telephone" means through audio telephone connection.
- "Account" means a deposit account for which transactions may be performed using our bill pay service.
- "Individual member account" means an account established primarily for personal, family, or household use.
- "Business account" means an account that is not a individual member account.
- "Payee" means any person or entity that we agree to establish as a payee for you.
- "Access codes" include the customer identification number, password and any other means of access to our bill pay service we establish or provide for you.

- "Deliver By" date is the date we anticipate your payment will be delivered to the payee that you have designated. When you attempt to choose a Send On date you will be informed of the earliest available Deliver By date taking payment method (electronic or mailed check) and weekend/federal holidays into consideration.

Protecting Your Personal Information

In addition to protecting your access codes, you should also take precautions to protect your personal identification information, such as your driver's license, Social Security number, or tax identification number. This information by itself or together with account information may allow unauthorized access to your accounts. You should treat personal information with the same level of care that you would for your account information. You should also protect and secure all information and data stored in any personal computer or other equipment you use to access our bill pay service.

Individual Agreement for Bill Pay Service

We do not have joint agreements for our bill pay service. If you are an individual or sole proprietor, you are the only member under this agreement. However, any of your bill pay funding accounts may be jointly owned with others. If joint account holders each obtain our bill pay service—meaning that each of you will have separate access codes—this will be identified as two separate bill pay services.

Bill Pay Funding Accounts

A bill pay funding account is a qualifying checking account with us from which you may make payments using our bill pay service. You must be a named owner of the account in our records for it to qualify. All of the qualifying accounts in your profile with us will be available as bill pay funding accounts. If there is more than one qualifying account, we will ask you to designate the default account that will automatically be used absent your choice of a different account.

Designating Payees

You must designate the persons or entities that you want to pay through our bill pay service. This can include us for payments to us. It can also include you if you want to make payments to accounts in your name with us or other financial institutions. However, payments to individuals or entities outside the United States of America are not permitted except for, payments to individuals or entities in Puerto Rico or the U.S. Virgin Islands; payments to individuals or business entities in a foreign currency are not permitted; and tax payments or court ordered payments are not permitted. Finally, we have the right to refuse to allow you to designate any other particular payee or class of payees.

You will have to give us any account numbers or other identifying information that we or a payee need so that your payments can be properly credited. If any account number or identifying information changes, or if you want to add or delete payees or other accounts with us, you must provide us with such changes.

Bill Pay Transactions

You, or someone you have authorized by giving them your access codes (even if that person exceeds your authority), can instruct us to perform the following transactions:

- Make individual payments or reauthorized recurring payments from a bill pay funding account to payees you have designated in accordance with this agreement.
- Obtain information that we make available about qualifying accounts.
- Obtain other services or perform other transactions that we authorize or allow.

We may introduce or offer new or additional services from time to time in connection with our bill pay service. By using these new services after they become available, you agree to be bound by all the terms and conditions that apply to those services.

Preauthorized Recurring Payments

You authorize us to establish preauthorized recurring payments in accordance with the requests you make for us to do so. We will only allow preauthorized recurring payments that do not vary in amount.

Communications Link and Your Equipment

It is your responsibility to obtain and maintain your communications link, whether by online or software, to our bill pay service to ensure that your use of such communications link is in compliance with applicable requirements, including any requirements of telecommunications companies and authorities. You are responsible for obtaining, installing, maintaining and operating all hardware, software and Internet access services necessary for obtaining our bill pay service.

If we give you any software to use in connection with our bill pay services, we do so on an "as is" basis from the vendor who provides it to us.

We make no warranties, express or implied, in connection with such software, including without limitation, the warranties of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose.

Limits On Bill Pay Transactions

You must have enough available money or credit in any account from which you instruct us to make a payment. All payments must be in U.S. Dollars. For security reasons, we may implement limits on the number or amount of transactions you can make using our bill pay service. We also reserve the right to limit or suspend access to our bill pay service as we deem necessary for security reasons. We may also limit access from countries other than the United States of America.

If any qualifying accounts are money market deposit accounts or share savings deposit accounts, certain types of withdrawals from those accounts, including payments and transfers, are limited to a total of no more than 6 in any specified period. The specified period for money market deposit accounts with us is the monthly statement period. The specified period for savings deposit accounts with us is a calendar month. The kinds of withdrawals covered by this limitation are those made by means of preauthorized or automatic transfers and payments or telephone agreement, order or instruction.

When Bill Pay Payments Are Made and Payment Method

Payments are not final at the time we receive your instructions, but we will begin to process them promptly. We will send payments either electronically or by mailed check. Payment method (electronic or mailed check) usually depends on the payee's determined method of receiving payments. We indicate within Bill Pay if we will send the payment electronically or by mailed check. Also, we may change the method by which we will send a payment to a payee (i.e., we may initially send a payment by mailed check and subsequently send a payment to the same payee electronically and vice versa). Unless required by law, we will not provide you notice of such change.

If we send the payment by mailed check, you should allow at least 5 business days for payees to receive your payments. This means that you should choose a Send On date, that is at least 5 business days before the date the payment is actually due, not the late date and/or grace period date. If we send the payment electronically, you should allow at least 2 business days for payees to receive your payments. This means that you should choose a Send On date, that is at least 2 business days before the date the payment is actually due, not the late date and/or grace period date.

Regardless of payment methods, once you choose a Send On date, you will be informed of the earliest available Deliver By date. Please remember while we anticipate that most payments will be delivered by the Delivery By date, there may be circumstances beyond our control that may result in some transactions taking longer to be credited by your payee to your payee account. For example, mailed checks could be lost or delayed by the U.S. Postal Service. We also can't predict the exact date that a payment will be posted by the receiving payee as payees may not immediately record a payment when it receives a payment from us.

We may permit you to create a memo line for payments, and the character limit for the memo line will be listed within Bill Pay, which we may change from time to time without giving you notice of such change. If we send the payment electronically or by some other means, we may store the memo line in Bill Pay for you, but we will not send the memo line to the payee. If we send the payment by mail, we may send the memo line to the payee. You agree not to use any obscene, lewd, or harassing language in any memo line. Each payment will be posted to the bill pay funding account from which it is made, and to any other account with us that is involved in the transaction, on the date you have specified. Each payment you make on a non-business day, or after our bill pay cut-off time on any business day, will be considered made on the following business day. We will notify you of the Bill Pay cut-off time in any manner we choose, but usually the cut-off time is posted on our website.

To the extent the automated clearing house ("ACH") network is used to facilitate your bill pay payments (typically, bill pay payments sent electronically), you agree to be bound by the National Automated Clearing House Rules. Further, you agree no bill pay payment will violate or violates any U.S. law.

Our Liability for Failure to Complete Payments From Member Accounts

If we do not complete a payment from a member account on time or in the correct amount according to our agreement with you, we will be liable for your losses or damages. However, there are exceptions. We will NOT be liable, for instance:

- If, through no fault of ours, you do not have enough available money in the account from which a payment is to be made, or if the account has been closed or is not in good standing, or if we reverse a payment because of insufficient funds.
- If any payment would go over the credit limit of any overdraft or other credit account.
- If your equipment or ours was not working properly and the breakdown should have been apparent to you when you attempted to conduct the transaction.
- If you have not given us complete, correct or current account numbers or other identifying information so that we or a payee can properly credit your account or otherwise complete the transaction.
- If you do not properly follow our instructions or if you provide us with wrong or inaccurate information or fail to correct or tell us about any inaccuracy of which you are aware.
- If you receive notice from a payee that any payment you have made remains unpaid or has not been completed, and you fail to notify us promptly of that fact.
- If the payee was a person or entity that you are not permitted to designate as a merchant (see the Designating Payees section above).
- If you do not instruct us soon enough for your payment to be received and credited by the time it is due.
- If a payee (other than us) does not process your payment promptly or correctly.
- If the money in the account from which a payment is to be made is subject to legal process or other claim restricting the transaction.
- If circumstances or persons beyond our control prevent, delay, intercept or alter the transaction, despite reasonable precautions that we have taken. For example, delays or losses of check payments by the U.S. Postal Service, delay by the payee in posting the payment once received, etc.
- If we do not process a payment or place a stop payment on it because the payee is a match or a potential match (as we determine) to the SDN list or any other list compiled by the U.S. Treasury's OFAC.

Business Days

Our bill pay service is generally available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. However, we only process transactions and update information on business days. Our business days are Monday through Friday. Holidays are not business days.

Stopping or Changing Payments

If you want to stop or change payments you have instructed us to make, you must notify us before we have started processing the transaction.

This applies to both individual payments as well as preauthorized recurring payments. The normal way to do this is for you to access the appropriate function in our bill pay service no later than 3:59 pm ET on the day the payment is scheduled to be made, and either delete it or make the change. You may also call us at 1-800-615-2328, or write to us at Century Federal Credit Union-Operations Department, P.O. Box , North Olmstead, Ohio 44070, or by using any electronic stop payment method which we provide for this purpose. If you call or write, you must do this in time for us to receive your request 3 business days or more before the payment is scheduled to be made. If you call, we may also require you to put your request in writing on paper and get it to us within 14 days after you call.

If you order us to stop a preauthorized recurring payment from a consumer account as described above, and we do not do so, we will be liable for your losses or damages.

All payees may be compared against the Office of Foreign Asset Control's ("OFAC") Specially Designated National ("SDN") list or any other list compiled by the U.S. Treasury's OFAC. If any payment is made to a payee who is a match or a potential match (as determined by us) to the SDN list or any other list compiled by the U.S. Treasury's OFAC, we may place a stop payment on any of those payments sent by mail.

Statements

Your bill pay payments will be indicated on the monthly statements we provide or make accessible to you for the accounts with us that are involved in the transaction. We may also provide or make accessible to you statement information electronically or by some other means. You agree to notify us promptly if you change your address or if you believe there are any errors or unauthorized transactions on any statement or in any statement information.

Notice of Incomplete Transactions

You agree to notify us promptly if you receive notice from a payee or other institution that a payment you made through our bill pay service has not been completed or remains unpaid.

Disclosure of Information to Others

We may disclose information about you or your accounts with us as follows:

- To consumer reporting agencies.
- In connection with audits
- For fraud, security or risk control.
- To help complete a transaction you initiate, including information requested to verify the existence or condition of an account.
- To resolve disputes or inquiries you may have about your accounts.
- With your consent or at your direction, which may be oral, in writing, by telephone, electronic or other means we recognize.
- When disclosure is required by law, such as pursuant to court order, subpoena, legal process or government agency examination or investigation, or to protect or enforce our rights.
- To companies that perform services for us in connection with your accounts, such as data processing and software companies and collection agencies.

•As otherwise necessary to service your account, or as permitted or required by law.

See our separate "Century Federal Credit Union Privacy Notice" for more information about how we use customer information and your choices.

Your Liability for Authorized Transactions

You are liable for all transactions that you make or authorize, even if the person you authorize exceeds your authority. If you have given someone your access codes and want to terminate that person's authority, you must notify us that transactions by such a person are no longer authorized. We may have to change your access codes or take additional steps to prevent further access by such person.

Notify us IMMEDIATELY for Unauthorized Transactions

Tell us AT ONCE if you believe your access codes have been lost, stolen or otherwise compromised or used without your authorization. Quickly telephoning us is the best way of reducing your possible losses. You could lose all the money in your account (plus your maximum overdraft line of credit).

You may call us at 1-800-615-2328, or write to us at Century Federal Credit Union-Operations Department, 28251 Lorain Road, North Olmsted, Ohio 44070. If we provide you with another electronic means of notifying us for this specific purpose, you may use that means. However, DO NOT use a general e-mail service or other electronic means that we have not specifically authorized for this purpose.

Your Liability for Unauthorized Transactions From Member Accounts

This section applies only to transactions from consumer accounts.

If you tell us within 2 business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your access codes involving a member account, you can lose no more than $50.00 if someone used them without your authority.

If you do NOT tell us within 2 business days after you learn of the loss or theft of your access codes, and we can prove that we could have stopped someone from using them without your authority if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500.00.

Also, if your statement for a consumer account shows payments covered by this agreement that you did not make or authorize, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was mailed to you, you may not get back any money lost after the 60 days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us in time.

If a good reason (such as a long trip or hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods.

Payments Involving Insufficient Funds

If you instruct us to make a payment and you do not have a sufficient balance in the bill pay funding account from which you are making the payment (including available credit under any overdraft line), we may refuse to complete the transaction. We may do this even if there are sufficient funds in other bill pay funding accounts other than the one you were using to make the payment. If we complete a payment that you make or authorize and we subsequently learn that you have insufficient funds for the transaction in the account from which the payment is made, you agree that we may reverse the transaction or offset the shortage with funds from any other account you have with us. In any case, you are fully obligated to us to provide sufficient funds for any payments you make or authorize.

If we do not make a payment, or if we reverse a payment, because of insufficient funds, we are not required to make any further attempt to process the payment or to notify you that the payment has not been completed. You may be liable for a non-sufficient funds fee under the terms governing the deposit account from which you made, or attempted to make, the payment.

In Case of Errors or Questions About Transactions Involving Consumer Accounts

This section applies only to transactions covered by this agreement and that involve consumer accounts.

Call us at 1-800-615-2328, or write us at Century Federal Credit Union-Operations Department, 28251 Lorain Road, North Olmsted, Ohio 44070, as soon as you can, if you think your statement is wrong or if you need more information about a payment covered by this agreement which is listed on the statement.

We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared.

•Tell us your name and account number (if any).

•Describe the error or payment you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error and why you need more information.

•Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

If you tell us orally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing so that we receive it within 10 business days.

We will determine whether an error occurred within 10 business days after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to 45 days to investigate your complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will provisionally credit your account within 10 business days for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within 10 business days, we are not required to provisionally credit your account.

For errors involving new accounts, point-of-sale, or foreign-initiated transactions, we may take up to 90 days to investigate your complaint or question. For new accounts, we may take up to 20 business days to provisionally credit your account for the amount you think is in error. When the investigation is completed, we will make any necessary or appropriate adjustments to your account. We will tell you the results within 3 business days after completing our investigation. If we decide that there was no error or the error was different than you described, we will send you a written explanation. You may ask for copies of the documents that we used in our investigation.

Changing Terms and Terminating This Agreement

This agreement will stay in effect until it is changed or terminated.

We have the right to terminate this agreement at any time. We will ordinarily send you notice of any termination, but we are not required to do so unless applicable law requires such notice. Once we terminate this agreement, no further or pending payments will be made, including but not limited to any payments scheduled in advance or any preauthorized recurring payments. We may routinely terminate bill pay service for members that have not used the service within the first 90 days after activation or if the service has been inactive for a year.

We also have the right to make changes in this agreement at any time. We will comply with any notice requirements under applicable law for such changes. If applicable law does not specify any notice requirements for the change, we will decide what kind of notice (if any) we will give you and the method of providing any such notice.

You may terminate this agreement at any time by notifying us in writing. Any instructions from you to make payments will continue in effect until we have received your written notice of termination and have had a reasonable opportunity to act upon it. Once we have acted upon your notice, no further or pending payments will be made, including but not limited to any payments scheduled in advance or any preauthorized recurring payments.

You are not permitted to alter or amend this agreement or any related document without our express written consent. Any attempt to do so will be void and unenforceable.

Waivers

No delay or omission by us in exercising any rights or remedies under this agreement or applicable law shall impair such right or remedy or be construed as a waiver of any such right or remedy. Any single or partial exercise of a right or remedy shall not preclude further exercise of that right or remedy or the exercise of any other right or remedy. No waiver shall be valid unless in a writing enforceable against us.

Notices and Communications

Except as otherwise provided in this agreement, all notices required to be sent to you will be effective when we mail or deliver them to the last known address that we have for you in our records or when we make such notices available to you through electronic means. All notices and communications sent by you to us will be effective when we have received them and have had a reasonable time to act on them.

You agree to notify us promptly of any change in your mailing address, e-mail address or telephone number.

Recording

You agree that we may tape record any telephone conversations you have with us regarding the services covered by this agreement. However, we are not obligated to do so and may choose not to in our sole discretion.

Attorney Fees

If we become involved in legal action to defend or enforce this agreement, you agree to pay our reasonable attorney fees and court costs, to the extent not prohibited by law.

Assignment

We may assign our rights and/or delegate our duties under this agreement to a company affiliated with us or to any other party.

Law That Applies

Regardless of where you live or work or where you access our bill pay service, this agreement is subject to the internal law of the State of Ohio and the federal law of the United States of America. If any of the terms of this agreement cannot be legally enforced, they will be considered changed to the extent necessary to comply with applicable law.

THE FOLLOWING SPECIAL PROVISIONS APPLY ONLY TO BUSINESS ENTITIES OR INDIVIDUALS PERFORMING TRANSACTIONS FROM BUSINESS ACCOUNTS:

Company Representative If You Are a Business Entity

If you are a corporation, partnership, limited liability company, association or some other form of business entity, we will issue one set of access codes to a company representative. It is your responsibility to ensure that access codes are provided only to persons you authorize. You represent to us that each company representative and anyone else using your access codes has general authority from your company to give us instructions to perform transactions using our bill pay service.

Each person using your access codes will have the ability to:

- Make payments from all bill pay funding accounts, regardless of the dollar amount of the transaction.
- Make payments regardless of whether he/she is otherwise an authorized signer on any bill pay funding accounts that are accessed.
- Obtain information that we make available about qualifying accounts.
- Obtain other services or perform other transactions that we authorize or allow.
- Allow anyone else to use those access codes to make payments or obtain information or other services.

Your Liability for Transactions From Business Accounts

You are liable for all transactions that you make or authorize, even if the person you authorize exceeds your authority. If you or a company representative have given someone your access codes and want to terminate that person's authority, you must notify us that transactions by such a person are no longer authorized. We may have to change your access codes or take additional steps to prevent further access by such person.

Our system supporting our bill pay service is designed so that it may be operated only upon entry of valid access codes. Since we condition access upon entry of valid access codes, we will accept instructions for payments or other transactions from any person using valid access codes. This is so even if the person obtaining access:

- Is not a company representative.
- Exceeds your authority or that granted by any company representative.
- Does not have your authority.
- Has had his/her authority changed or revoked.
- Is an imposter or thief.

You agree to be bound by all transactions from any business account for which valid access codes were used. You authorize us to treat any instructions we receive using valid access codes as if the instructions had been made in writing and signed by the appropriate company representative. Unless there is substantial evidence to the contrary, our records will be conclusive regarding any access to, or action taken through, our bill pay service.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, we agree that you will not be responsible for transactions which occur after you have notified us to block the access codes that were used to perform the transaction, and we have had a reasonable opportunity to do so. Thus, the sooner you notify us of a problem, the better you can keep your losses down. (See the Notify us IMMEDIATELY for Unauthorized Transactions section above.)

You agree to promptly examine all account statements and any confirmations of payments which we or other banks may send or make available to you, and to promptly notify us of any discrepancy or error within 30 days of receipt of any such statement or confirmation.

Call us at 1-800-615-2328, or write us at Century Federal Credit Union-Operations Department, 28251 Lorain Road, North Olmsted, Ohio 44070 as soon as you can, if you think your statement is wrong or if you need more information about a payment covered by this agreement which is listed on the statement.

Limitations on Our Liability in Connection with Business Accounts

We will make every reasonable effort to provide full performance of our bill pay system, and on a timely basis to resolve disputes that may arise.

We will only be responsible for acting on instructions that we actually receive. We cannot assume responsibility for any malfunctions or capacity reductions or other problems in your equipment or in public communications networks not under our control that may affect the accuracy or timeliness of transactions you perform. Our only liability is to correct errors within our control. We are not responsible or liable to you for any loss, damage or injury caused by our bill pay system. Neither will we be liable for any consequential, incidental, special, indirect or punitive loss or damage, including but not limited to dishonor of checks or other items or expenses which you may incur or suffer by reason of this agreement or the services we provide, whether or not the possibility or likelihood of such loss, damage, or expense is known to us.

WE MAKE NO WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, IN CONNECTION WITH THE SERVICES WE PROVIDE YOU UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, THE WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

Security Procedures

By entering into this agreement and using our bill pay service to perform transactions from business accounts, you agree to comply with all of our present and future security procedures with respect to transactions and services covered by this agreement. This includes, but is not limited to, protection of access codes and other personal and business information. Our security procedures are contained in this agreement and in other written procedures we may provide to you.

You acknowledge receiving a copy in writing of our current security procedures in this agreement and other documents we may provide to you. You agree that our current security procedures are commercially reasonable in the context of your business operations. We may at any time change our security procedures. We may advise you of such changes to the extent they affect your use of transactions and services under this agreement, but failure to do so will not affect your obligations or our rights. You agree to give all of our security procedures the highest level of confidentiality and to ensure that no access codes are used by or accessible to anyone other than persons you have authorized.

Notwithstanding any security procedure, which may from time to time be in effect for detecting errors in transactions covered by this agreement, we have no duty to discover or report to you any such errors. Neither shall we be liable to you for the failure of such security procedure to detect such errors, regardless of the manner in which we apply such security procedures.

Indemnification

If you are a business entity or an individual performing transactions from a business account, you agree to indemnify us and hold us harmless from and against any and all claims, demands, expenses (including but not limited to reasonable attorney fees and costs), losses or damages claimed by any third parties (including but not limited to any company representatives or other persons authorized to perform transactions) arising out of (i) any transactions or attempted transactions covered by this agreement from a business account or (ii) your breach of this agreement.

END OF SPECIAL PROVISIONS THAT APPLY ONLY TO BUSINESS ENTITIES OR INDIVIDUALS PERFORMING TRANSACTIONS FROM BUSINESS ACCOUNTS

In these Terms, “you”, “your”, “their”, and “my” refer to the cardholder of the Century Federal Credit Union Card, and “we,” “us,” “our,” and “Century Federal Credit Union” refer to the issuer of your Card.

What is a Mobile Wallet Service?

A Mobile Wallet Service (“Mobile Wallet”) allows you to add your Century Federal Credit Union Cards to an application using your mobile device. Your Century Federal Credit Union Card number is replaced with a digital number or token. Once added, you understand that you may use your mobile device to make payments only where the Wallet is accepted. Century Federal Credit Union is not a provider of the Wallet and we are not responsible for any failure or inability to perform a transaction using the Wallet. We are only responsible for supplying information securely to the mobile wallet provider to allow usage of the Century Federal Credit Union Card in the mobile wallet.

Eligibility

Active Century Federal Credit Union Card accounts that are in good standing are eligible to be added to a mobile wallet. If your Century Federal Credit Union Card or any underlying Century Federal Credit Union account becomes delinquent, is in a negative status or is otherwise maintained in an unauthorized manner as determined by Century Federal Credit Union in its sole discretion, your Century Federal Credit Union Card may be removed by Century Federal Credit Union from the mobile wallet for continued use.

Relationship to Other Agreements

You agree that when you add your Century Federal Credit Union Card to a mobile wallet, your Century Federal Credit Union Card and account will remain subject to the terms and conditions of all existing agreements with Century Federal Credit Union. For example, your mobile service carrier or provider may impose data usage or text charges for your use of, or interaction with, the mobile wallet, including downloading the software, receiving or sending text messages, or other use of your mobile device when using the software or other products and services provided by the Wallet. You expressly agree that you are responsible for all such fees, limitations, and restrictions, and that we may contact you via your mobile device for any purpose concerning your accounts at Century Federal Credit Union, including account servicing and collection purposes.
