Account Grouping

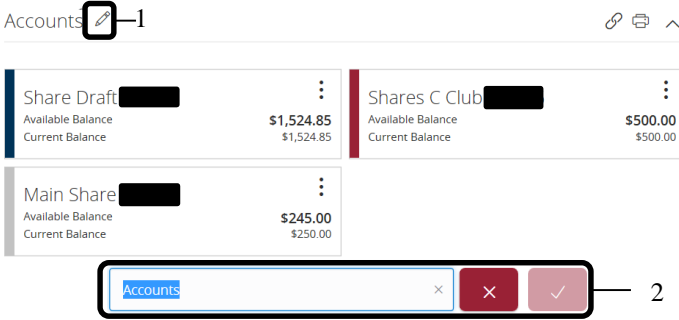

You can organize your accounts into groups, so the Home page appears in a way that makes sense to you. These groups can always be changed or deleted to meet your needs.

1. Create a new group by clicking and holding an account tile, then dragging and dropping it to the icon that pops up.
2. Create a group nickname and click the check mark when you are finished.

Editing a Group Name

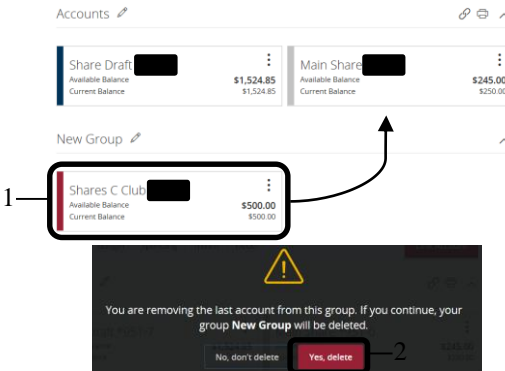

The names of existing groups can be edited in just two easy steps.

1. Click the  icon to edit your group nickname.
2. Enter a new name and click the check mark when you are finished.

Deleting a Group

After a group is made, you can reorganize the Home page by deleting a group without removing those accounts from the Home page.

1. Remove all accounts from a group by clicking and holding an account tile and dragging it to another group and dropping it.
2. Click Yes, delete to delete the group.
