Century Federal Credit Union Named Official Credit Union of the Cleveland Guardians

CLEVELAND, OH – Century Federal Credit Union (Century FCU) is proud to announce that it has been named the Official Credit Union of the Cleveland Guardians. This multi-year partnership brings together two Cleveland institutions that share a deep commitment to the region, its people, and its future.

Founded in 1948 and headquartered in Cleveland, Century Federal has grown to serve more than 25,000 members across Northeast Ohio while remaining firmly rooted in its not-for-profit, member-focused mission. Guided by its tagline, Bank Boldly. Live Fully., Century Federal stands beside its members as a long-term partner, helping them pursue their goals with confidence and prepare for the future they envision.

Partnering with the Cleveland Guardians—a team that represents the heart, hustle, and resilience of Cleveland—marks an important milestone in the credit union’s history.

“As a credit union founded and grown right here in Cleveland, this partnership means a great deal to all of us at Century Federal,” said Dave Wilde, President/CEO of Century Federal Credit Union. “The Guardians embody the pride, perseverance, and community spirit that define our city. Being named the Official Credit Union of the Cleveland Guardians is more than a sponsorship—it’s a shared commitment to supporting the people and neighborhoods that make Cleveland home and helping them Bank Boldly. Live Fully.”

“Century Federal Credit Union has deep roots in Cleveland and shares our commitment to supporting the people and neighborhoods that make this city special,” said Tim Salcer, Senior Vice President of Sales and Service for the Cleveland Guardians. “This partnership reflects our shared belief that when Cleveland succeeds, we all do it together as a team—both on and off the field.”

Through this partnership, Century Federal and the Cleveland Guardians will collaborate on initiatives designed to give back to the community and promote financial wellness for fans throughout the region. Planned efforts include:

- Community engagement and education: Financial literacy programs, workshops, and resources to help Clevelanders build stronger financial futures
- Exclusive member experiences: Special game-day experiences, ticket opportunities, and unique promotions for Century Federal members
- In-ballpark presence: Century Federal branding and member-focused activations at Progressive Field, highlighting the credit union’s commitment to serving Cleveland

“Century Federal has always believed that when our members and our communities thrive, we all win,” Wilde added. Partnering with the Guardians allows us to extend that impact, reach more families, and demonstrate in a powerful way what it means to Bank Boldly. Live Fully.—on and off the field.”

This announcement underscores Century Federal’s ongoing dedication to supporting the greater Cleveland community through responsible lending, accessible financial services, and community-focused programs. As the Official Credit Union of the Cleveland Guardians, Century Federal looks forward to creating meaningful experiences for members, fans, and families across Northeast Ohio.
